1	Name of your state.	Date of response.	Is your state, or are the counties within your state, accepting new incoming interstate cases?	Is your state, or are the counties within your state, sending new interstate cases to a responding state?	Is your state ready and able to receive employer reports of lump sums and take action on those payments (if you don't have a mandatory lump sum reporting law in your state, answer "no")?	If the answer to #5 is Y, is your state ready to handle a large number of lump sum reports within a short period of time?	Is your state continuing to place liens on bank accounts?	Is your state continuing to seek suspension of driver licenses?	Is your state currently able to move forward with establishing paternity and support obligations and reviewing support obligations, even if the process may be somewhat delayed with the court or administrative tribunal?
